In the true nature of The Fiddly Farty Company we do not mass produce.

It is our intention to offer variables rather than dictate what you can have.

To balance this we require variables on delivery. Therefore all orders placed by 8.00 am Monday morning will be despatched on or before the following Monday unless a specific delivery date after that has been nominated above.

However, do not hold any further orders until the following Monday as you may catch a run during the week
